Mike has been acknowledged as an educational leader and mentor for youth across the U.S. as he commits his time and God-given gift to ignite the fire within the masses of individuals both young and older. He has been a regular speaker for a branch of the U.S. Dept. of Labor's Job Corps Center to train on Leadership Development, Character/Relationship Development, and Essential Life Skills to help increase their value in the marketplace.

His philosophy is "When you're living in your purpose, there's no such thing as competition." By applying the very leadership principles he teaches in his own life, he began his career as an Elementary School teacher at the age of 19, later become a School Principal at the age of 25 all before obtaining his Bachelor's Degree.

As an entrepreneur, Mike, alongside his wife owns and operates several businesses, including LewLegacy LLC, a consulting hub that helps with everything from Leadership development for both individual and small/large businesses to Beauty consulting for women. Mike has written several books and manuals including The Lion's Den. He is also the founder of the Cultivating Potential Leadership Academy, an online digital course that centers around helping others discover and live out their life's purpose. His educational background consist of a Bachelor's Degree in Education and a Master's Degree in Executive Leadership

Mike and his lovely wife Jaquail go about their daily lives seeking to help others achieve their goals and desires, spiritually, emotionally, and in business. They live in Richmond, TX.
